Deficiency / Observations of the Inspection Committee :

The Institution may be advised to improve the following :

1. The Principal has not been officially appointed and the present Principal seems to be for a stop gap arrangement. Hence, a new Principal has to be appointed and the relevant appointment order with the relieving order from previous institution should be forwarded to the University.
2. Softwares to be installed.
3. Workshop shed to be completed in all respects and equipment for workshop should be shifted from the existing rooms.

The Institution is requested to rectify the above deficiencies and submit a compliance report to the University within 3 months.
